

YOUNG DENTISTS, NEW GRADUATES, NON-IRISH GRADUATES

STARTING DENTISTRY IN IRELAND

HILTON HOTEL
CHARLEMONT- DUBLIN 2

SEPT 13

INTRODUCTION

Starting out? Coming to Ireland from abroad? Newly graduated? Recently returned home? Then this seminar is for you!

This day-long seminar will focus on areas relevant to those starting off in their professional dental journey in Ireland, including dealing with difficult patients, income protection/pension planning, setting prices for treatments, tax issues, and employment law issues.

Leading experts will present and answer any specific queries delegates might have.

The day is also a great opportunity to meet with your peers and discuss areas of mutual interest/concern.

Also in the venue on the day is a seminar on Finance in Dentistry – Show me the Money. Both programmes will merge for a panel discussion at the end of the day.

8.45am–9.10am	Registration
9.15am–10.15am	My story – three young dentists tell us their story of being a dentist in Ireland.
10.15am–11.00am	Managing expectations and dealing with difficult patients. Dr Martin Foster, Dental Protection
11.00am–11.30am	TEA/COFFEE
11.30am–12.00pm	What to look for in a practice and how to price your treatments. Dr James Goolnik, dentist and practice management consultant
12.00pm–1.00pm	Starting dentistry in Ireland – what to know. Roisin Farrelly, IDA
1.00pm–2.00pm	LUNCH
2.00pm–2.30pm	Money and tax issues. David McCaffery, MedAccount
2.30pm–3.15pm	Am I covered? Income protection and pension planning explained. John O'Connor, Omega Financial Management
3.15pm–4.15pm	Panel discussion with Finance in Dentistry seminar delegates on various topics discussed during the day from the two programmes.

To register, go to www.dentist.ie and select BOOK CPD
Cost: IDA member €135, non-IDA member €155 *special price for this event only